PROCEDURE

- A week after the deadline each article is sent to two referees.
- The referees are requested to fill in a standard form about the article and return it within 1 month.
- When the forms are returned by both referees, they are sent to the writers for possible revisions. If the article is accepted by both referees, the writers are requested to do the revision of their articles within 2 weeks and submit their essays along with a short bio (max. 100 words) an abstract (max. 150 words) and 8 keywords.
- If one of the referees accepts the article and the other rejects it, the writer is requested to revise the article thoroughly and resubmit it to the next issue.
- The same procedure is applicable for articles rejected by both reviewers.
